

ISBI Education Grant

Promotion of education in all aspects of burn care and cooperation between those who are involved are among the aims of the ISBI. To this end, the ISBI has established an educational grant for burn care professionals (physicians and non-physicians) wishing to expand their knowledge and expertise by visiting burn centers and laboratories in other parts of the world. Each provider will be able to acquire new clinical skills and/or gain understanding of specialized research techniques.

A- Eligibility

The applicant must fulfil the following requirements:

- Be an active member (paid yearly dues) of the ISBI
- Be a burn care provider (MD, PhD, RN, PT, OT, etc.) with a documented commitment in the field of burn care

B- Application

The application must be received by the Secretary of the ISBI on or before 1 March each year, and must include the following documents:

- The ISBI Education Grant application form.
- A letter by the applicant stating the purpose of the trip, the skills or capabilities to be acquired, and the date, name, and location of the center or centers which the applicant intends to visit. The applicant should state specifically how the information and skills acquired during the fellowship will be applied in his/her subsequent practice.
- A copy of the applicant's Curriculum Vitae
- A letter of recommendation by the applicant's mentor or the Regional Representative of the applicant's nation.
- A letter of acceptance from the host institute or institutions which the individual intends to visit.
- A statement regarding the length of time to be spent at the host institution. The visit must be long enough that the visitor will benefit from skills and procedures learned in the host unit.

C- Benefits

- ISBI will pay an economy class airfare from the place of residence of the applicant to the site or sites to be visited and return to the point of origin. All other expenses must be borne by the fellow or his/her host.
- The total requested airfare cannot exceed $ 3,500.00
- An individual can receive only one ISBI Traveling Fellowship in his/her lifetime.
- Only 2 grants per year will be funded.

D- Travel Arrangements

The individual should obtain an economy class airfare ticket for which he/she will be reimbursed by the ISBI upon presentation of the proper documentation. Reimbursement and all related matters will be processed directly between the individual and the Administrative Director of the ISBI.

E- Reports

The recipient is expected to send a report to the ISBI Secretary in which he/she describes how he/she has benefited from the grant, what new skills have been acquired, and how those skills and capabilities will be applied in the individual's subsequent practice.
